Najib Razak reminded the people not to forsake their future by listening to the claims, allegations and promises made by the opposition because the BN government had proven all this while that it could ensure the prosperity of the people and country.

The prime minister said the BN had carried out many projects to bring prosperity to the people including channelling various assistance because it had the capability to administer the country efficiently and effectively.

NONE "The opposition's stories cannot be relied upon because they don't have the capacity to administer the country efficiently. Even now they seem to be in chaos. So, don't listen to them (opposition) if they come," he said in his speech at the programme 'Sepagi Bersama Perdana Menteri' (One Morning with the Prime Minister) at the Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Changkat Beruas field, Beraus, Perak today.

Najib said the government had also succeeded to reduce national debt and raise national income, despite the many assistance given to the people.

"This means that we are able to administer the country well, manage the national economy efficiently. (We) ensure that the national economy can continue to expand, national revenue increases, (and) when we achieve such success, we return the national wealth to the people," said the prime minister who was making a one-day visit to Perak today.

BN returning wealth to the people

Referring to the various assistance given by the BN government to the people, he said the government was merely returning to the people the country's revenue.

"Does this make us an irresponsible government? Certainly if we return the national wealth to the people, it means that the government is giving priority to the people. As I have promised all this while, (where) for the past three years we practiced the concept (1Malaysia, People First, Performance Now)," he said.

Najib said as such, if the opposition accused that the BN government was irresponsible, the accusation was incorrect.

An irresponsible government was one that used up the country's funds, and at the same time, (it) increased national debt merely to gain the support of the people, he said.

"As the general election approached near, only then do they give aid merely to gain votes without managing the national economy properly. That is an irresponsible government which does not think of the future of the country," he said.

He said such a government only wished to win the support of the people and wanted to be popular in any way possible which was different from the approach taken by the government under the BN.

At the function, Najib also announced an allocation of RM2 million each for the Changkat Cermin Mosque, Sekolah Jenis Kebangsaan (Cina) Tit Bin in Pantai Remis and a hall for the Indian community in the Beruas parliamentary constituency.

The prime minister also presented a special contribution in the form of a wheelchair and food items to 12 disabled and poor people.

Dinner as 'sheer waste of public fund'

Meanwhile, Taiping MP Nga Kor Ming said that the Tit Bin Chinese school - the largest primary school in Beruas parliamentary constituency - needed about RM3 million to rebuild its classrooms which had been afflicted with a termite problem.

“However, the government had failed to provide the required fund citing inadequate allocation as their excuse.”

Nga described Najib's 10,000-people dinner to mark his visit to Beruas today as a “sheer waste of public fund”.
