The nationwide tour of Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak to present his three-year report card titled 'Fulfilling Our Promises' (Janji Ditepati) has extended to the print media, with full page advertisements published in all the major dailies today.

Newspapers in all languages carried a full page colour advertisement listing the total cash distributed to the people by the Najib administration in the past one year.

The payments were made under Bantuan Rakyat 1Malaysia (BR1M, RM2.6 billion), Program Kebajikan Rakyat 1Malaysia (Karisma, RM1.4 billion), RM200 book vouchers for school and college students (totalling RM263 million) and RM100 in student aid (RM550 million in all).

'Fulfilling Our Promises' is a campaign to present Najib's report card on the progress achieved under the Government Transformation Programme (GTP) over his three years as prime minister.

It is seen as Najib's final push to galvanise support amid speculation that the 13th general election may be called as early as June.

The campaign, which also marks Najib's third year in office, took off last Monday with a televised speech by the Najib.

It was followed with a nine-stop nationwide tour. The first stop was in Batu Pahat last Sunday, attracting more than 50,000 people from around the southern state of Johor.
