Kuala Lumpur City Hall (DBKL) officers were spotted near Ambiga Sreenevasan's residence this afternoon, in anticipation of another protest.

Ten DBKL personnel and five police personnel were spotted near her house at Bukit Damansara.

According to one DBKL personnel, they had received information that several individuals will be setting up a pasar malam (night market) in front of Ambiga's house.

As of 7pm, no such activities were taking place.

Ambiga's house has been the target of two protests against the Bersih 3.0 rally which she led.

The first occurred on May 10, involving a make-shift burger stall at her gate to symbolise the losses sustained by petty traders in Kuala Lumpur as a result of the Bersih 3.0 rally.

A second protest occurred yesterday, involving the Malaysia Army Veteran Association, who held a group exercise session, specifically targeting their posteriors.
