PKR de facto leader Anwar Ibrahim today claimed that another Sabah politician will defect to Pakatan Rakyat this weekend.

Saying this at the PKR headquarters in Petaling Jaya, Anwar, however, refuted claims that his hints on Sabah is reminiscent of the failed September 16 bid to take over Putrajaya in 2008.

"The shock will come from the rakyat, it is an uprising by the Sabah people. It so happens that several leaders have joined the movement, and another will join soon," he said.
