PKR de facto leader Anwar Ibrahim today came to the DAP's defence by asking why the party is being singled out, when even the prime minister had said that hudud will never be implemented in Malaysia.

"This campaign by religious extremists, specifically Utusan (Malaysia) says it's haram and sinful to support DAP as they don't support hudud.

"But MCA and Umno itself does not support hudud. (Former premier) Dr Mahathir Mohamad had written a letter to the Kelantan MB to reject the implementation of hudud in Malaysia and Najib reiterated this..." he said.

Najib on Sep 25, 2011 was reported by The Star as saying that the government will not implement hudud as it has to take into consideration current realities.

He was also reported as saying that there are already elements of hudud implemented in Malaysia, but "minus the extreme part".
