Eight days before nomination day, a video claiming to be of a senior PAS leader having sex with an unknown woman in what appeared to be a hotel room has made its way in several pro-Umno bloggers since late yesterday.

It depicted a man having sex with an unidentified woman and afterwards getting dressed.

Pro-Umno blogger Papagomo has alleged that the woman was paid by PKR, suggesting infighting within the opposition Pakatan Rakyat coalition.

Checks this morning revealed the clip has been taken down by video-sharing service provider YouTube.

The Star today reported that images of the video were found in several blogs, such as Kedahan69ers.com and Medan Info Kita.

According to the English daily and Utusan Malaysia, police have detected attempts to distribute video compact discs of the purported leader in Besut, Terengganu.

16 VCDs seized

The VCDs and the pornographic images of the leader were placed in an unmarked envelope and distributed to several houses in Kampung Alor Lintang, Besut.

Terengganu Criminal Investigation Department chief K Manoharan confirmed the video distribution and following the incident, police went to the area to investigate and seized 16 VCDs.

"However, the person who distributed the videos could not be detected," said Manoharan, who declined to reveal more, saying that police have yet to view the contents of the video.

Malaysiakini is attempting to contact the alleged politician for his comments on the matter.
