PKR and its close ally Parti Sosialis Malaysia (PSM) may end up in three-cornered fights in Selangor state seats Semenyih and Kota Damansara if they cannot resolve their differences.

The source of acrimony is PKR's insistence on PSM using the former's party logo to contest in the coming general election, following what PSM had done in 2008.

If the matter cannot be resolved in 48 hours, it would be no surprise if PSM, that has since received its Registrar of Societies' (ROS) approval in 2008, goes ahead to field its own candidates in the said seats.

PSM secretary general S Arutchelvan is expected to contest Semenyih, while Mohd Nasir Hashim will defend his Kota Damansara seat.

Sources in PKR told Malaysiakini that the party is scheduled to release its complete candidates list for Selangor seats this Sunday.

A bank officer Hamidi A Hassan is expected to be name for Semenyih and lawyer Mohd Razlan Jalaluddin for Kota Damansara.
