Pakatan Rakyat's 'Black 505' rally series maintained its momentum last night, drawing a massive multi-racial crowd at Jalan Beserah, Kuantan.

It was hard for eyewitnesses contacted by Malaysiakini to make an estimate because many people could not fit into the carpark where the event was held.

But Star Online reports that cars had lined up for several kilometres along the road shoulder to the venue.

"I saw mostly youths from different ethnic groups last night at the rally," said a jovial Rafizan.

The main speaker last night was again PKR de facto leader Anwar Ibrahim, while the supporting cast included Pahang PKR chief Fauzi Abdul Rahman, PAS information chief Tuan Ibrahim Tuan Man and Pahang DAP chief Leong Ngah Ngah.

The fifth leg of the rally will take place in Johor Baru tonight.
