The Home Minister has reportedly confiscated copies of two major opposition publications Harakah and Suara Keadilan, in various states.

According to Harakah's online news site, HarakahDaily, copies of the PAS' party organ were said to have been seized in Malacca, Negri Sembilan, Kedah and Perak.

NONEThe paper's marketing manager Ahmad Faisal Tawang had said he received calls from vendors in the morning, informing him that only were ministry representatives seizing copies of the paper, were also raiding the vendors' premises.

He said the paper's confiscated were Friday's edition, dated May 24-26, which featured the frontpage headline 'GST hadiah BN untuk rakyat (GST is BN's gift to the rakyat)'.

Some 500 copies were allegedly seized in Malacca, while more than 1,000 were taken in Alor Setar, in Kedah.

Meanwhile, it was also stated on Twitter that copies of PKR mouthpiece Suara Keadilan were similarly confiscated in four states today.
