The Election Commission (EC) is now under the purview of the deputy prime minister after a reshuffling in the new cabinet.

Tourism and Culture Minister Nazri Aziz said that EC is no longer under the purview of the de facto law minister, a position that Nazri held in the previous cabinet.

The EC did not feature in the list of 11 agencies and government arms which fall under the new de facto law minister, Nancy Shukri.

Nazri had previously headed 19 agencies and government arms when he held this position for two terms between 2004 to 2013.
