

PKR: Wan Ahmad's criticism shows he is pro-BN

MalaysiaKini.com

June 21, 2013

By Abdul Rahim Sabri

Election Commission (EC) deputy chief Wan Ahmad Wan Omar has proven he is partisan to BN by calling opposition MPs "hypocrites" because they intend to take their MP oaths, says PKR Youth.

NONEPKR Youth chief Shamsul Iskandar Mohd Akin (left in photo) said as the EC is required to be non-partisan, Wan Ahmad has proven to be unfit for his post and should resign.

"We have the EC deputy who rightfully should be non-partisan and independent.

"By issuing the comment as he has had, it shows what we have claimed before this is correct, that EC is headed by leaders who side with a particular party," said Shamsul at a press conference in Petaling Jaya today.

"We consider it is wrong for a civil servant to show bias and support for the ruling coalition BN, and Wan Ahmad is not fit to hold the EC leadership that should be independent."

Yesterday, Wan Ahmad criticised Pakatan MPs for agreeing to be sworn in as MPs on June 24 despite claiming that the 13th general election was rife with fraud.

However, BN leaders had earlier criticised Pakatan for mulling calls to boycott Parliament, claiming the opposition would be irresponsible to their voters.

Copyright © 1999-2012 Mkini Dotcom Sdn. Bhd

Source: <http://www.malaysiakini.com/news/233592>