The mother of K Murugan, a PKR's parliamentary candidate's security aide who was found brutally murdered just before election day, is appealing to Parliament to set up a committee to investigate the murder.

NONEP Rajjamah made the plea in a meeting with Batu Gajah MP V Sivakumar at the entrance to Parliament this afternoon.

Overcome by tears, the 62-year-old handed over a memorandum to Sivakumar.

"A parliamentary select committee must be formed to investigate the murder, to determine if it is politically-motivated, because it involves a VVIP," the memorandum reads.

Murugan (right) was aide to PKR Tapah candidate K Vasantha Kumar, who accompanied Rajjamah during the memorandum handing over.

Vasantha Kumar explained that they decided to submit the memorandum to Parliament after the receiving no reply to the four they had sent to Inspector-General of Police Khalid Abu Bakar, seeking a just investigation.

He said police never called in a single person from the BN for questioning, while to-date, up to 19 PKR members have been called in.

"Till today, we have sent four memoranda to the IGP but the IGP has kept his mouth shut," Vasantha Kujmar added.

Murugan was found dead three days after being reported missing on May 1. His body was discovered floating in a pond near Batu Gajah in Perak.

His face was reportedly brutally smashed, his body slashed and tied with barbed wire and said to have been thrown into the pond together with 52kg of scrap metal.
