Veteran Selangor lawmaker Ng Suee Lim (DAP-Sekinchan) was appointed chairperson of the public accounts committee (PAC), after state opposition leader Shamsudin Lias (BN-Sungai Burong) rejected the offer of the post.

At the sitting today, Selangor Menteri Besar Abdul Khalid Ibrahim moved a motion to establish the PAC, as well as proposed seven assemblypersons as its members.

NONEApart from Shamsudin, the other members named were Amiruddin Setro (BN-Jeram), Amirudin Shari (PKR-Batu Caves), Lee Chin Cheh (PKR-Kajang), R Rajiv (DAP-Bukit Gasing), Mohd Shafie Ngah (PAS-Bangi) and Ng (right).

Shamsudin asked for the motion to be debated when speaker Hannah Yeoh instructed the House to vote on the motion.

After Yeoh rejected the request, he registered his objection to his nomination and asked to be retained as only a committee member.

NONEYeoh (right) then asked Khalid to submit another name-list, which then proposed Ng as PAC head. The House approved the motion.

Senior state exco member Teng Chang Khim later moved a motion to establish a Special Select Committee on Competency, Accountability and Transparency (Selcat), with Yeoh as its chairperson. This too was passed by the House.

The Selcat members comprise Nik Nazmi Nik Ahmad (PKR-Seri Setia), Dr Abdul Rani Osman (PAS-Meru), Saari Sungib (PAS-Ulu Kelang), Azmin Ali (PKR-Bukit Antarabangsa) and Sulaiman Abdul Razak (BN-Permatang).
