Umno president Najib Abdul Razak disagrees with former premier Dr Mahathir Mohamad that the party is dying.

He based his opinion on the fact that the party won 88 seats during the recent general elections, compared to 79 in 2008.

"We (Umno) have remained the bastion for BN," he said.

Umno, he said, will continue to fight for the interests of the party, reject money politics and advance the interest of the rakyat.
