

Zahid warns Rela, I know who did not vote
MalaysiaKini.com
May 24, 2014

"Don't play play with me. I know who has voted and didn't vote," Home Minister Ahmad Zahid Hamidi warned volunteer corps Rela officers during a rally in Teluk Intan today.

Revealing that there are over 8,000 Rela members who are voters in this constituency, Zahid also said that there were 2,000 over Rela members who did not vote in the last general elections despite being eligible to vote.

"So, this time, make sure that BN wins this parliamentary seat," Ahmad Zahid said in his speech at Sekolah Kebangsaan Selabak.

"I'm watching over the Pekan Baru ballot boxes," he said. Kampung Selabak comes under the Pekan Baru voting district.

He told Rela corps that he would buy them new uniforms should BN win the by-election, while also stressing that Teluk Intan would be eligible for the RM1 million constituency allocation if the voters vote for BN's candidate Mah Siew Keong.

'You stand to lose if you vote others'

"If only Bagan Datoh and Pasir Salak (two neighbouring BN constituencies) gets allocation and Teluk Intan doesn't, it makes life difficult for the district officer," Ahmad Zahid said.

"Let's make it easier for him by ensuring that all the constituencies within Hilir Perak district represented by BN MPs," he added.

Ahmad Zahid also stated his confidence that Mah will be part of the country's "top leadership" should he be elected.

"Bagan Datoh has a minister, Pasir Salak's representative is a deputy minister. I'm confident, if he is elected, our candidate for Teluk Intan will be part of top leadership," he said to some 4,000 Rela members from Teluk Intan.

"I don't have to tell you how much you stand to lose if choose (elect) others," he added.