

Umno is boss in BN's Teluk Intan campaign

YOURSAY 'Is Dyana the puppet of DAP or Gerakan the puppet of Umno?'

Whatsup: The culprits are obvious - the beneficiaries of this fake bikini photograph are Gerakan and Umno-BN, should the DAP candidate's reputation be dented.

By putting such photos in the mosque, the culprits are guilty of insulting all Muslims. The Umno-BN leadership shows its shameless complicity in committing such a blasphemous act in a mosque.

Don't think voters are stupid and don't know who did it.

Versey: Other than the usual "You help me, I help you" method and this primitive smear campaign, don't they have something better to offer to the electorates?

Is it not showing that these goons are running out of ideas to woo support from the Teluk Intan constituents and therefore have to stoop so low to such a gutter tactic?

Honestly, if they "need" to resort to such a filthy strategy, in the end, even if BN candidate Mah Siew Keong wins this by-election, it will not be able to convince the people that he has got it clean, without any foul play.

That is the price dirty politics/politicians will have to pay.

Moontime: It seems to me that Mah's political campaign has been completely taken over by Umno. This despicable party is so obsessed with sex, pornography and spreading slander that it has become second nature to its party members.

Lamborghini: It just shows how desperate and low the BN has become. It can't talk, persuade or argue sensibly and so has to resort to cheap and dirty tricks like these.

Really, no standard, no morals and no dignity at all. Please learn to fight an election fairly and cleanly, and gentlemanly.

CQ Muar: This is the most sinister and diabolical ploy by Umno to win votes. Do you need to demoralise and smear your fellow Malay with such untruths?

Dyana Sofya Mohd Daud has done no wrong, and has vehemently denied she's the person in bikini - so what more do you want? Stop sinking to such low level just to win and solicit for votes.

If your daughter had been ridiculed like this, how would you react to such an unjust accusation?

Lim Chong Leong: Is Dyana a puppet of the DAP or Gerakan a puppet of Umno? Mah said he wants a clean campaign, but Umno masters continue to play dirty with their smear campaign. Mah should just resign if he has the spine. But I doubt he has.

Oriole: To candidate Mah, two comments:

1. Denial has become the last refuge of the damned in Malaysia, you may not have been responsible for filthy politicking, but you obviously have no control over the thugs in the majority component in your coalition; and
2. The only way you will win is if they rig the ballot box because no matter how good you are, you and your party are linked to a hooligan group that has shown the nation that bullying is the main part of their governance.

Muhyiddin: Bikini flyers not from us

Louis: DPM Muhyiddin Yassin, there are only two contestants - BN and DAP. The stupid photograph, if not distributed by BN, must then be done by DAP itself.

And do you think that DAP would destroy the chances of its very own candidate by doing something stupid like this? DPM, don't make yourself look stupid by denying this lowly act.

To print so many flyers is not cheap. It must be the work of a party that has lots of financial weight.

CiViC: Of course, who would be so stupid as to admit it? But the fact is, BN is the only one that gains advantage over the flyers.

Gravity: Hello Muhyiddin, it's in Umno's DNA. Umno's fingerprints are all over the photo.
