Partyless Menteri Besar Abdul Khalid Ibrahim may dissolve the state assembly in November, and force a snap poll said the ex-senior executive councillor Teng Chang Khim of DAP.

"I want to warn Khalid not to destroy the state administration by remaining as MB.

"I have received information that Khalid has discussed with four PAS exco members that he will wait till November to dissolve the state assembly," he told a press conference after he finished clearing his office today.

Claiming a "very reliable source", Teng said that Khalid (left) wants four PAS exco members to remain until the state assembly holds its required sitting within three months.

"I want to warn Khalid to refrain from destroying the government because of his intention to remain until November.

"It's about time he resigned because it's proven he has lost the majority support," Teng told a press conference in Shah Alam today.

Teng also challenged Khalid to reveal his position.

"If he wants to call for an emergency state assembly seating, or dissolve the assembly or wait until November for his next move, he should announce his intentions now," he said.
