PKR CONGRESS A PKR delegate today turned on the heat at party leaders openly warning them against bad behaviour.

Ahmad Nizam Hamid, representing Pahang at the 10th National PKR Congress today, was debating the president's policy speech when he warned the leaders not to demand loyalty while they themselves were indulging in bad behaviour.

"Those up there, do not behave badly... do not rush (for positions)," he said pointing at the entire leadership standing on the stage.

Ahmad Nizam used the word "ulah" in his warning, a Malay slang word for bad behaviour.

He delivered the warning as he outlined three problems which he said were plaguing the PKR.

They were, he said, deterioration of the party's authority, disciplinary weakness, as well as lack of tolerance and the leaders' personal issue.
