YOURSAY 'Rakyat too are tired of injustice and embarrassed with gov't pursuit of stupid issues.'

PM tired and embarrassed for BN in S'gor

The Mask: So now you know how it is to feel tired and embarrassed. How do you think we the rakyat have been feeling?

We are also tired with having to fight for justice and fairness, tired of fighting against selective persecution and prosecution, and embarrassed with your flip-flopping of various issues, and embarrassed with your government's pursuit of silly, stupid issues which make our country a laughing stock for the whole world.

Yes, you are tired and embarrassed. So are we!

Abasir: Dear Tired and Embarrassed Prime Minister,

Don't lose heart now. Do more of the same and Selangor will return to Umno. Seize more Bibles, invade Hindu weddings to seize brides, get Isma to call all non-Malays ungrateful pendatangs, get the likes of Perkasa leader Zulkifli Noordin to spew his patented racist garbage at every opportunity.

Get Umno lowlife in PKR to create another crisis involving the sultan, come up with shady deals impacting the rakyat and cover your tracks by putting the deals under OSA, persecute anyone you consider a "liberal", get your ministers and your pet poodles to say/tweet stupid things.

Go on many more overseas trips on the special jet with family and friends while raising prices on essentials like fuel and transport, tell the people to tighten their belts while hosting elaborate dinners and luncheons in your Putrajaya palace, use your on-call NGOs to demonise civil society leaders, tell Malays they are always under threat.

Sincerely,
Your loyal rakyat awaiting liberation from Pakatan Rakyat

Spirit of Malaya: Wait until Pakatan Rakyat takes over the federal government, then PM Najib will feel really tired!

WDA: Najib seems to have confessed what most of us know already. He said educated people who can think critically and know they don't need BN/Umno to survive have shunned the ruling party.

He is saying a new strategy is needed because the Selangorians are unlike their current supporters who are mostly less educated and naive that can be easily made to believe that they need BN/Umno for their daily survival.

Although he's the BN top leader, Najib seems to have no clue on how to win Selangor back and is passing the buck to Selangor Umno to come up with a plan. Only a weak leader will be tired and embarrassed over the failure of the party he helms.

To make it worse, Najib unashamedly admits his helplessness in public.

Haveagreatday: "Najib also admitted that people are more educated as well as critical-minded..". It is not often Najib talks facts; this is one of those rare gems!

What is he implying? That the Umnoputra sweep in the rural hinterlands are because the rakyat there have been brainwashed by their propaganda machine!!

Anonymous #70881335: Worry about your own fate, PM Najib. You may not be around to fight the next GE. The knives may already be out for your political life. (It's) all your own doing: gutless and poor leadership riddled with corruption and leakages.

Fair Play: Truth is, extremist individuals and groups such as Ibrahim Ali, Ridhuan Tee Abdullah, Isma, Perkasa etc, have failed miserably in 'assisting' Selangor Umno. Boot them out and adopt a more inclusive policy for the rakyat and there might be a slim chance. And who knows? The mother of all embarrassment might occur after GE14.

Lynn: Completely missing the point of a democracy. Being an elected representative doesn't mean you have to be in power, my PM. It means you have to work for the people who elected you. The embarrassment lies with the people who are foolish enough to vote for BN in the first place.

Chathrina: Yes, eight years have passed but what has Pakatan brought to Selangor? No significant progress. Lots of infighting and self-interest among its leaders. So how sure are we that they can lead the nation without breaking up the nation into pieces? Educated people too can see through the weakness of Pakatan.

DerekGiles: Umno Selangor should dare to set new strategies and make changes in mind if you want to recapture the state. Umno Selangor should also take advantage of the chaos Selangor opposition leadership is in now to restore support to the people of Umno Selangor and BN.

RZC: Is Najib only tired and embarrassed with this? Why isn't he tired and embarrassed with rising prices, corruption, election rigging, his minister goons who open their mouths and talk rubbish, Dr M and his senility, Isma, Perkasa and their racism, the kangaroo trial of Anwar Ibrahim, the arresting and persecuting of opposition leaders etc, etc, etc.

Mob1900: Actually Umno Selangor has been hard at work, plotting, scheming and raising hell in Selangor in recent years. In fact, they're the most vocal in fanning racism, intimidation and extorting the people whom they're supposed to win over. I say bravo!

Keep up the good work of alienating the people of Selangor so we can shut you out for good. Syabas!
