

PPP, MCA take punches for Najib

YOURSAY 'Kayveas has brought the art of being a sycophant to a whole new level.'

Najib is always right, says Kayveas on U-turn

Sirach: Nothing shows up PPP president M Kayveas as a toady and a court jester desperate to please his master, than a statement like this.

This man has absolutely no self-respect and has confirmed that Malaysians were right to flush PPP and its leader down the toilet in GE13. This is the kind of unquestioning loyalty that a Hitler, Stalin, Pol Pot or any number of tyrants would have demanded.

In a civilised democracy, a confident and real leader would surround himself, not with sycophants and yes-men, but with colleagues who are unafraid to tell him the truth, however unpleasant it may be.

Sadly, fools like Kayveas are typical of the type of people a leader lacking in conviction and principles attract. Did I mention that PPP is in the BN? Well if the cap fits...

Anonymous #50815906: I'm wondering what the People's Progressive Party (PPP) has done for the people who support it over the years. It does not have any seat in Parliament. Why have a party that is not doing anything for the people and country?

I like to know what benefits it has brought for its members. Our thanks to the DR Seenivasagam brothers who formed the party and truly served the people during their days.

Onepen: Yet another Indian Malaysian is willing to take the punches for PM Najib Razak. It used to be a leader from another party.

Two days ago, two Indian Malaysian teachers were charged for having examination question papers in their phones. In terms of numbers, how many Indians have access to those who control the secret vault?

God created Indians in Malaysia to take punishment.

Doc: Indeed, words of wisdom from M Kayveas. If your boss is stupid, please ensure that you act and behave 100 times dumber than him so that your boss will look like a genius.

FairMind: Doesn't this tantamount to official admission that Umno is the boss and the rest of the BN coalition are mere lackeys?

I'm sure MCA, Gerakan and MIC are in the same boat. If we need lackeys then there is no need to waste time and money to elect members of parliament.

Slumdog: Another self-serving and egotistical maniac disguised as an Umno warrior who shows no bounds of stupidity and ignorance.

Well done Kayveas, you have brought the art of being a sycophant to a whole new level. I hope one day your efforts are handsomely rewarded.

Odin: When someone has reneged on his word pledged not even once but more than once and you say he is right, it clearly illustrates your total lack of morals, honour and principles.

Now go and kiss his backside as that other Indian leader kissed DPM Muhyiddin Yassin's hand.

MCA 'supports Sedition Act', blasts Umno Cheras

Thinking citizen_1403620863: MCA is no longer a representative of the Chinese community that they claim to be because they are seen as tools for Umno to claim legitimacy that they support all communities.

So whatever MCA does is not a reflection of anything except of themselves. Fortunately, the Chinese community no longer bothers about what they say and do.

The day then MCA president Chua Soi Lek threatened the community by staying out of parliament if they do not get their support is the day MCA is no longer relevant in the eyes of the Chinese.

It is never about fighting for Chinese interest but one of responsibility to ensure that the community is properly represented and their leaders speak for the community when they are being unfairly treated.

We did not see it before and we do not see it now.

Whysoserious: It is called mutual agreement, can't you see that? It was clearly a misunderstanding by MCA deputy chief Wee Ka Siong.

But then again, all that has been cleared and it is not an issue to begin with. Stop calling people names, they are doing what is right for the country.

Foodforthought: So self-respecting person would call this nonsense a "mutual agreement" under the pseudo guise of all these are "right for the country".

Old Timer: Umno, MCA, MIC started as equal partners in 1957. Recent events in Malaysia do not indicate there is equal partnership anymore.

I wonder why MCA, MIC and others still cling to the hem of Umno's skirt. May be they should consider leaving BN, which could be the best thing for them.

Fair Play: MCA, if you have any dignity left, just leave BN. The respect of the rakyat is far more important than a few ministerial positions of insignificant importance.
