The flood situation in Kelantan, Pahang, Johor and Selangor has remained unchanged, while there was a slight improvement in Perak and Terengganu this afternoon.

The number of flood victims evacuated in Kelantan was 151,072, while Pahang recorded (33,225), Johor (328) and Selangor (33).

There was a slight drop in Terengganu from 33,292 in the morning to 32,782 in the afternoon, while flood victims in Perak - namely Hulu Perak, Kuala Kangsar, Perak Tengah and Kerian - dropped from 7,813 to 7,540.

In PAHANG, places affected by floods were Temerloh (12,012), Kuantan (3,046), Pekan (4,873), Maran (3,479), Jerantut (6,025), Bera (1,491) and Lipis (2,299).

In JOHOR, the state flood operations centre said 328 flood victims from 84 families were placed at nine flood relief centres in Muar, Batu Pahat, Segamat and Kluang.

In SELANGOR, 33 flood victims from several villages in Klang have been housed at Sekolah Kebangsaan Sungai Binjai.

In TERENGGANU, the state National Security Council (MKN) said more than 500 of the 21,738 flood victims in Kemaman have been allowed to return home.

However, other areas have remained unchanged, especially Dungun 10,138, Hulu Terengganu (149) and Kuala Terengganu (759).

In PERAK, a MKN spokesperson said Perak Tengah registered 4,132 flood victims, Kuala Kangsar - including Sungai Siput (2,371), Hulu Perak (788) and Kerian (293).

Meanwhile, the Kelantan state flood operations portal said the water level at Sungai Kelantan and Sungai Golok remained above the danger level.
