Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak this morning attended the Sultan Azlan Shah Trophy Premier Golf Competition 2015, organised by the Malaysian Anti-Drugs Association (Pemadam), at the Kuala Lumpur Golf and Country Club (KLGCC).

Najib, who is also patron of Pemadam, arrived at about 7.30am and later spent time to play golf with Pemadam president Mohd Johari Baharum, Sime Darby chairperson Abdul Ghani Othman, and SME Corp chairperson Mohamed Al-Amin Abdul Majid.

A total of 120 golfers, representing several corporate sectors, took part in the competition.

Najib was also scheduled to hand over the major prizes to winners at the competition.
