Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak today held a meeting with Kelantan Menteri Besar Ahmad Yaakob in Putrajaya.

The prime minister in his Facebook posting said they discussed several issues on the wellbeing of the people in the state.

"God willing (Insya-Allah), the federal government will always place the highest priority on the interest of the people in any matter," he said.

Najib also uploaded two pictures in his message showing the two leaders shaking hands and having a discussion.
