YOURSAY 'Like us, you have no more immunity to say whatever you please.'

Perkasa backs Dr M on solving Altantuya poser

Ferdan: Finally Perkasa president Ibrahim Ali has broken his silence with regard to attacks on PM Najib Razak.

Earlier he played safe by crawling to his hole keeping his opinions to himself. Now his mentor Dr Mahathir Mohamad had said his piece loud and clear; Ibrahim Ali has decided to come out in open to back him.

Welcome citizen Ibrahim Ali, be careful with what you say, and like us you have no more immunity to say whatever you please. The police are now watching you as well.

Check 'Twitter-king' inspector-general of police (IGP) Khalid Abu Bakar's tweets for possible clues if you have made a mistake.

You may get the 3am visit at your home by fully armed masked police like in the case of MP Khalid Samad.

Diablo: "Ibrahim added that Najib seems to be even worse than his predecessor Abdullah Ahmad Badawi."

This is the first time I agree with Ibrahim Ali that Abdullah Ahmad Badawi is a better prime minister than Najib.

Abdullah gave the country the Iskandar development, what has Najib given Malaysia? High debt and high tax.

Gordon Gecko: Najib, what are you waiting for? Rope in Ibrahim Ali and dress him in purple.

You might just score some points with the Chinese voters and thumb your nose at Dr M's camp. It's a no-holds-barred game now and it's time to take offensive against the Dr M camp.

Elegant silence on your part and taking blows from the Dr M camp will only make you lose credibility not only among the rakyat but also your Umno supporters.

Coleman_Cut: Ibrahim Ali, popularly known as Ibrahim Katak, is perhaps the most successful political frogs to date in this country.

He hopped happily from BN to Semangat 46 and later to PAS before becoming BN-friendly frog (though still under PAS ticket). It could be due to his magnificent happy-go-hopping talent which impressed Mahathir.

Karma: The frog has finally jumped up from under the bridge. How about the 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) scandal?

A Chinese is messing with Malaysia's money. Our currency is affected and many people are getting poorer by the day. How come Ibrahim Ali did not make any noise?

Anonymous #20513663: Funny, he had nothing to say about hudud, but a lot to say about Najib.

Conclusion: Perkasa is not about 'Malay supremacy' but about politics. Just like hudud was not about religion but about politics.

And TDM (Tun Dr Mahathir) is still the organisation's puppet master despite his official 'distancing' from Perkasa.

Anonymous_1421406986: All these guys, a former PM, a scribe and now Ibrahim Ali, are showing up collectively and in unison, and definitely with a plan.

How do you treat people who may have known something for a long time but yet chose to remain silent? Are they not equally sinful in the eye of God, if it is supposedly true?

If it is a false accusation planted to bring a person down, is it not a unforgivable sin?

Cllww: Hasn't Najib given his nod to IGP to throw whatever law imaginable at Mahathir, A Kadir Jasin or Ibrahim Ali the way he does to others?

Opposition YBs, less-friendly press, lecturers, NGO activists are remanded. But the IGP has no balls to summon the trio to have their statements recorded.

Ku Li: Dr M seeks answers, time for truth to emerge

Liujinzhong: Invariably such controversies related to corruption and cronyism are kept within the circle of Umno leaders.

Why are the ordinary Malays not educated on such issues? It is as though Malays have no right to express how they feel about the indecencies of their leaders?

The Malay print media is so well-controlled by Umno politicians that vast majority of Malays have little knowledge of ugly facts around us.

Oh Ya?: The people want answers not only on Najib's alleged scandals but 57 years of scandals committed by successive Umno leaders.

That includes of course the infamous BMF (Bumiputera Malaysia Finance) scandal for which a patriotic auditor was murdered for apparently probing his nose too deep into the case which was a well-planned robbery of the highest order.

NX: It's about time the elders in our society stand up and ask the relevant questions to our government. This is to safeguard the well-being and integrity of the nation.

The king and the sultans in this country ought to do it but...
