Former prime minister Dr Mahathir Mohamad believes the BN does not need his help in its campaign for the Permatang Pauh by-election.

Mahathir said the BN has a chance of winning the seat, as a result of the fissures in Pakatan Rakyat.

"I don't think they need my help. I think they have a chance of winning.

"PKR doesn't support (PAS' attempts to implement) hudud.

"So PAS might not help. This might give BN a chance," Mahathir told reporters after a closed-door speaking engagement with Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) students in Penang today.
