PAS deputy spiritual leader Ahmad Yakob said PAS' annual congress next month will determine its ties and cooperation with partners in Pakatan Rakyat, especially the DAP.

Ahmad (photo), who is also Kelantan menteri besar, said he was confident PAS president Abdul Hadi Awang had thought over his statement that he was ready to cut ties with DAP.

"He (Abdul Hadi) must have studied the matter. Just wait for the PAS congress next month," he told reporters after opening a seminar on the Socio-Culture of the Siamese and the Indian communities in Kelantan at Kompleks Islam Darul Naim in Kota Bharu today.

The PAS annual muktamar will be held from June 4-6 in Kuala Selangor, Selangor.

Meanwhile, in Shah Alam, PKR deputy president Mohamed Azmin Ali said PAS and DAP leaders should stop trading barbs openly in the media over PR's shadow cabinet.

"Please go back to the drawing board and discuss," he told reporters after attending the Selangor Foundation Educational Excellence Award 2014 ceremony.
