Be it professional or personal, Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak's Twitter postings never fail to draw flak. And his latest is no exception.

Najib tweeted about his previous response to Dr Mahathir Mohamad, saying: "I urge Umno and BN members along with all Malaysians not to be taken in every time Tun (Mahathir) attacks."

The tweet provided a link to Najib's Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) on his blog.

This invited responses which, among others, called on him to explain the issues raised by Mahathir or to resign.

Below are some of the tweets:

@MuhdSaufiAhmad: Tolong lahhh.. Merayu sangat ni, lepaskan la jawatan tu. DS da tak mampu perbaiki biar yg lain cuba.. Jangan keruhkan keadaan (Please, this is too much of pleading. Relinquish the post. You are incapable of fixing, let others try. Don't make the situation worse).

@DavidAng1989: Please step down and let others have the chance to lead Malaysia to a better stage and reach the goal of Tun M's Wawasan (Vision) 2020.

@donrazali: Cakap yg tak boleh nak percaya, asyik kelentong rakyat je (Can't believe your words, you often lie to the people).

@tansianhoo: Come out and explain in a televised PC, if not you're just gonna be roti Najib in our memory.

@Ahmad_Faris: Then explain what needs to be explained

@gaffor: Guess its more of seeking the truth and explanation than attacks. People are well informed nowadays Mr. PM.

@Bidinggg: DS buat lawak ke (Are you making jokes)?

@apuifrederic: Macam mana rakyat nak bersama sokong DS? Sejak kamu memerintah kami lagi susah nak makan (How are the people to support you? Since you came into power, it has been more difficult for us to eat).
