YOURSAY 'The stories they tell are getting more and more unbelievable.'

MP: Arab donation to fight 'Jewish-backed DAP'

Negarawan: We know that the Arab "donation" is most likely linked to International Petroleum Investment Company (IPIC) former chairperson Khadem al-Qubaisi, who leads a highly immoral life filled with debauchery.

By any religious standard, such sinful characters cannot be accepted in any decent and God-fearing society. Here, we have Umno politicians who have shady business dealings with such a man, with allegedly illegal transactions amounting to billions of ringgit.

Such monetary gains are sinful and have been conveniently and dubiously labelled as "donations" by the culprits to escape the law.

What is so honourable about these Arabs and their accomplices in Umno, who have allegedly plundered the country's wealth through 1MDB?

Don't blame other innocent and God-fearing communities, including the Jews, for the sins of Umno.

Yawkwai: One say fight IS (Islamic State), another says fight Jews. Now which is which? I am confused.

Pahatian: I was about to believe what these leaders said earlier but now to connect the 'donation' to DAP and the Jews, we know now for sure these are all tales to soothe their boss's ears.

They are really stupid to the core. They are trying to outdo one another. Expect more tales to come out from them.

Doc: "If we had lost in the elections, Jewish-backed DAP would have been in power... Fellow Muslim leaders recognised the DAP threat," said Deputy Transport Minister and Sri Gading Umno chief Abdul Aziz Kaprawi.

Thank goodness Islam allows Umno leaders to take huge sums of 'donation' money to fight the evil DAP.

Basket Case: Abdul Aziz, you flatter yourself; no country in the world will take such detailed interest in Malaysia.

If only Umno shows such creativity in helping the people. The only creativity they have is in the way they take the rakyat's money and then lie to cover up the act.

Indeed, all their "creative" explanations so far have not only been ridiculous but have served to prove their guilt.

Justine Gow: The stories they tell are getting more and more unbelievable as each day passes.

They are no longer ashamed of showing to the world that they are only capable of uttering nonsensical tales. I guess they are just desperate after seeing that the truth is not on their side.

Justice Pao: How can DAP rule the country when the number of seats they contested is totally insufficient to form the government?

It looks like these Umno people has a very poor grasp of even simple arithmetic and no wonder they seems to lose their mind when handling anything more than five figures.

Speechless: Stupidity is an abundant commodity in Umno. There appears to be a competition in Umno as to who can issue the most bizarre and idiotic comments.

Sadirah: Instead of having the courage to do an inner 'jihad' and look at their own folly, they point at DAP.

Take Abdul Aziz to court and sue his pants off. I do not think many in Umno will fall for such an explanation.

GE14NOW!: Wow, it gets better and better, doesn't it? It would appear that they are all trying to outdo another to come out with new lies.

You people are despicable and even more so because you claim to be righteous and holy.

FairMind: If the donor intended RM2.6 billion for Najib Razak to fight the 'DAP-Jewish' threat, then the PM has betrayed the donor and Umno members for he has allegedly transferred RM2 billion back to Singapore.

Anon.ymous: Politicians like Abdul Aziz are the reason why our country's stagnating (or worse, regressing) instead of progressing.

The cabinet is full of such like-minded minions who cannot tell the difference between a patriot and a traitor. How much more ridiculous and ludicrous can one get?

Roar: The problem with Malaysia is not just corruption. It is compounded by idiots like Abdul Aziz.

We really need divine intervention to help us. Sometimes I wonder has God forsaken us?

Turvy: If such speeches can be made with impunity, we may as well close our doors and go into hibernation.

Not only does the regime allegedly steal, but having been caught, they split and destroy the nation to shield themselves.

Protest is the only answer because I for one will not stand silently when such crimes as are being committed before our eyes.
