Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak could only smile when asked about the no-confidence motion against him, but typically offered no comment.

Najib flashed a broad smile when the media asked if he was worried about the motion filed by PKR Petaling Jaya Selatan MP Hee Loy Sian, citing the RM2.6 billion donation that had gone into the PM's private bank accounts.

The premier was in Parliament today to answer a matter related to the National Security Council.

Najib was repeatedly asked about the no confidence votes on his way out of Parliament building.

Meanwhile Pakatan Harapan has agreed unanimously to seek a vote of no confidence against Najib, where a total of 88 MPs, if MPs from PAS are included, will stand against the premier.
