Some of the 10,000 spectators at Stadium Malawati today booed prime minister's wife Rosmah Mansor as she presented the prizes at the Malaysian Open in Stadium Malawati today.

Rosmah, who is also Badminton Association of Malaysia (BAM) patron, witnessed Malaysian top player Lee Chong Wei defeat world number one shuttler Chen Long to wrest the Malaysian Open title.

The booing started when Rosmah's name was announced for the prize-giving ceremony.

However, the booing was quickly drowned out by the applause for Lee and Chen during the prize-giving ceremony.

Rosmah appeared unaffected by it, and went up to the stage while clapping.

The brief incident was caught on video by viewer, Jay Jay Dennis, and is now circulating on the internet.

Jay Jay, who caught the incident through live television, is aide to DAP's Klang MP Charles Santiago.
