Suspended Umno deputy president Muhyiddin Yassin lamented his uncertain fate amid moves to have him sacked from the party of which he had served for 45 years.

"There is someone who is proposing for me to be sacked.

"I don't know what will become of my fate after this," he said briefly at a dialogue with youths in Kuala Lumpur today.

He was responding to a question from the floor about Umno supreme council member Mohamed Nazri Abdul Aziz's bid to move a motion for Muhyiddin's sacking at the next Umno supreme council meeting.

The meeting is expected to take place after the Sarawak election on May 7.

Muhyiddin also had very few words for the media as they tried to ask him questions, including about his thoughts on the Sarawak election.

"I don't want to say anything at all," he said before walking of.
