Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak and the cabinet members will hold an open house on the first day of Aidilfitri at the Seri Perdana Complex in Putrajaya.

According to a statement from the Prime Minister's Department issued today, the 'prime minister and cabinet members 2016 Hari Raya Aidilfitri open house' would be held from 10am to 4pm.

"Members of the public are invited to the event dressed appropriately or in national attire," the statement said.

It also mentioned that free bus service would be provided by Bas Putrajaya from three locations, namely Putrajaya Sentral, Tuanku Mizan Zainal Abidin Mosque and Putra Mosque, for the convenience of the public attending the event.

"The public can leave their vehicles at the three locations and take the buses provided with the frequency of every 20 minutes," he said.

Meanwhile, Deputy Prime Minister Ahmad Zahid Hamidi invites the public to his Aidilfitri open house at Sri Satria in Putrajaya on July 9.

A statement issued by the Home Ministry today said the open house would be held from 3.30pm to 7pm.
