21 September 2021

COVID-19 | The Health Ministry today reported 15,759 new Covid-19 cases.

New cases are still relatively high in Sarawak (3,732) and exceed those of the more populous Klang Valley (2,327).

As of last night, the R-naught for the country was 0.93. It has been below 1.00 since Sept 1. A R-naught of less than 1.00 suggests that the spread of Covid-19 was slowing down.

Currently, the only regions where the R-naught is above 1.00 are Sarawak, Terengganu, Perak and Pahang.

The Health Ministry only releases numbers for Covid-19 deaths and active cases for each day after midnight. For yesterday's numbers, please click here.
