COVID-19 | The Health Ministry today reported 4,239 new Covid-19 cases, bringing the cumulative infections to 2,623,816.

The fresh infections are the lowest in 196 days, since May 16.

They comprised 4,072 Malaysians (96.1 percent) and 167 non-citizens (3.9 percent).

The fresh infections were surpassed by a total of 5,007 Covid-19 patients who recovered today. This is expected to help reduce the number of active cases.

Patients in ICU: 511

Intubated: 261

As of today, the number of patients (including suspected ones) in the intensive care unit (ICU) is 5.5 percent lower compared to a week ago.

Those who require intubation have also declined by 2.2 percent from a week ago.

Nationally, the number of hospital admissions in the last seven days have declined by 4.6 percent compared to the preceding week.

Health Ministry will only publish today's breakdown of new cases by states after midnight on its CovidNow portal.

The breakdown by states for yesterday (Nov 27), where 5,097 new cases were reported, is as follows:

Selangor (1,503)

Kedah (459)
