Negeri Sembilan Pakatan Harapan chairperson Aminuddin Harun was sworn in as menteri besar for the second term today.

Aminuddin, 56, took the oath of office, loyalty, and secrecy before the Yang Dipertuan Besar of Negeri Sembilan Tuanku Muhriz Ibni Almarhum Tuanku Munawir, at Istana Besar Seri Menanti at 4.15pm.

Tunku Ampuan Besar of Negeri Sembilan Tuanku Aishah Rohani Tengku Besar Mahmud and Tunku Besar Seri Menanti Tunku Ali Redhaudin Tuanku Muhriz were also present.

On Saturday (Aug 12), Harapan-BN succeeded in forming the state government after winning 31 seats, namely 17 seats for Harapan and 14 seats for BN, while Perikatan Nasional secured five seats.

Today's ceremony was also attended by the state Umno Liaison Committee chairperson Jalaluddin Alias and the state leadership from BN and Harapan.

Retaining Sikamat

Born on Jan 2, 1967, in Kampung Pachitan, Port Dickson, Aminuddin and his wife Wan Hasni Wan Yusof, 53, have five children, three boys and two girls.

Aminuddin went to Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Tanah Merah, Port Dickson, before furthering his studies at the diploma level at Mara Institute of Technology (now UiTM) in business.

In the Aug 12 state polls, Aminuddin retained the Sikamat state seat when he defeated PN candidate, Ahmad Raihan Muhamad Hilal and two independent candidates, Bujang Abu and Mohammed Hafiz Baharudin, with a majority of 2,662 votes.

The Port Dickson MP, who has held the Sikamat state seat for four terms since 2008, is also active in non-governmental organisations, such as the Persatuan Wadah Pencerdasan Umat and Malaysian Islamic Youth Movement.
