Anwar Ibrahim arrived in Kota Kinabalu today to begin his two-day working visit to Sabah to kick-start the campaign for the 17th Sabah state election.

The aircraft carrying the prime minister landed at the Kota Kinabalu International Airport (KKIA) in Tanjung Aru at 1.45pm.

His itinerary for today includes engaging Sabah youth at the “Dialog Anak Muda Bersama PM” programme at the International Technology and Commercial Centre (ITCC) Penampang.

He will also attend the “Ziarah Kasih” programme in Kampung Duvanson, Putatan, and visit the victims of the Kampung Petagas fire.

In the evening, the Pakatan Harapan chairperson is scheduled to attend a dinner with the Kota Kinabalu Chinese community as well as a series of talks, dubbed “Ceramah Perdana PM Sayang Sabah”, starting at the Putera Ballroom in Kampung Padang, and later at Pan Borneo Hotel and the parking lot of Inanam

New Township.

Tomorrow, Anwar is expected to attend a meet-and-greet event with Tulid community leaders and residents at Kampung Menawo Ulu, Tulid, Keningau, before proceeding to a similar event in the Melalap state constituency at Dewan Datuk OKK Sanggau Jalang, Tenom.

The Election Commission has set the polling day for the 17th Sabah polls on Nov 29, with early voting on Nov 25.
