

Crude remarks are crude remarks, why defend?

I refer to the letter DPM's position on 'bocor' case equally shocking.

The very fact that even Deputy Prime Minister Najib Razak could condone such an act too demeaning for me to repeat here! The very fact that not all of the honorable members of parliament of the ruling party oppose these very debasing and humiliating remarks when it was brought to their notice is not only an insult to the DAP woman MP but also mortifying to all the daughters of Malaysia .

It is also an affront to all the men of Malaysia that such a despicable remark can be uttered in the halls of our Parliament.

Let me say this: 'A wrong is a wrong'. It doesn't mean that if the opposition party protests, the ruling party must defend and vice-versa. Why can't a 'a wrong be a wrong' and all parties - whether ruling or opposition - make 'right' all 'wrongs'?

What's becoming of our Parliament when a wrong thing is done or said is defended by the ruling parties with the opposition demanding otherwise?

I fear that if this is left unchecked, than a corrupt thing can become right if our ruling MPs are so blinded to just walk within party lines. I say again, a wrong is a wrong and a corruption thing is a corruption thing whether you are in the ruling party or in the opposition. So elected members of the nation, please for heaven's sake do the right thing.

As such, apology or not, I motion a call to kick out not only the two inhuman MPs that started all this and to even remove the deputy prime minister for his insensitive remarks and of all ruling MPs who would supported him.

It was indeed a black day for our nation. I say to all of them, enough is enough. We, the people of this nation, demand a change.
