

Demand another apology from sexist two

I refer to the malaysiakini report Suhakam blasts sexist MPs.

What arrogance. The apology was completely misdirected to women in general, instead of to poor Miss Fong Poh Kuan, the MP for Batu Gajah. Jasin MP Mohd Said Yusof's and Kinabatangan MP Bung Mokhtar Radin's dark humour are a product of vile illiterate minds.

What a farce. When most countries are ruled by intellectuals, we still have kindergarten politicians to lord over us. Umno has exposed itself in that no matter what, 'we have to stick together, as thick as thieves'. Viewed in the broader concept of a family, imagine a father telling his good-for-nothing son, 'It's alright, boy, carry on insulting'.

Now and we see farce after farce with each parliament meeting. Are we paying comedians or politicians of calibre to run this country? Most of the time a lot of hours are spent on non-substantive matters laced with personal insults, vulgarity and uncouthness played to a raucous gallery.

And when a real issue of importance like a leaking Parliament should be taken with great responsibility and concern, everything was hee-hawed into a 'leaking' female.

Let it be known to Umno MPs - the more you talk, the more you reveal yourself as nothing short of stupid - and that's what most of you are. Politicians of proper decorum and intellect have through the centuries left for posterity quotes of wisdom that have been inspirational and greatly revered. Quotes from our MPs however, only fill the 'tong sampah' to the brim!

What was more, the apology to womenfolk was given so flippantly and was not straight from the heart. And what is more hurting, it was not directed to the victim, Fong. We should demand for another encore of apology until Bung Mokhtar and his coyote has hit the right nerve of repentance.
