Asked by reporters about these issues, Nik Aziz said he had no knowledge whatsoever what they were about.

"I am not bothered (about what they have to say), I don't even think about it," he said after receiving a courtesy call by a 50-strong Koperasi Takaful Ibnu Al-'Asr delegation from Thailand at his official residence here today.

Yesterday, PAS' youth wing lodged a police report in Kuala Lumpur over the alleged death threat posted on Facebook.

Syed Azidi, in his blog, had alleged that he had been paid RM4 million by certain parties to tarnish the credibility of former prime minister Abdullah Ahmad Badawi's administration.
