Also present were Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Koh Tsu Koon and National Unity and Integration Department director-general Azman Amin Hassan.

Abdullah, who is also Kepala Batas MP, said the prime minister had introduced a strong 10th Malaysia Plan and six National Key Result Areas, while Malaysia had been placed among the top 10 most competitive countries.

"Except Malaysia, there is no other country in the Organisation of the Islamic Conference and Non-Aligned Movement in the top-10 list. This is a good thing and therefore, there is no need to doubt the prime minister's credibility as a leader," he said.

Abdullah also urged the people to uphold the spirit of unity and solidarity to ensure smooth implementation of the country's development projects and programmes.
