Election preparations are part of the agenda for the two-day PKR retreat beginning Saturday in Shah Alam.

suhakam suara keadilan 250309 tian chuaPKR strategic director Tian Chua said five papers would be presented at the meeting to be attended by the party's supreme council members.

Besides election preparations, they were also expected to discuss matters related to information distribution and organisational structure at the workshop to be held then.

"We will try to come out with some resolutions... or work programme for the party," the Batu member of parliament told Bernama in a telephone interview.

Opposition leader and party advisor Anwar Ibrahim would also attend the meeting, he said.

The meeting is being held in the wake of reports that a group of 15 PKR members of parliament has teamed up to oust Khalid Ibrahim as Selangor menteri besar.
