A group of some 100 people gathered at the Suara Keadilan office in Shah Alam this afternoon to hand over a memorandum protesting allegations that Felda is bankrupt.

felda protest suara keadilan 300610What is believed to be six busloads of protesters arrived to express anger at the weekly's June 22 - 29 edition's front page bankruptcy splash.

Assembling in front of the Suara Keadilan office at around 2.50pm, a spokesperson for the group read out the memorandum, while some members started burning copies of the publication, causing traffic disruption.

Suara Keadilan's management went down at around 3.07pm to receive the memorandum, after which the group began to disperse. The whole event ended at around 3.15pm.

felda protest suara keadilan 300610This is the latest in a series of strikes against Suara Keadilan since it published the controversial claim, which first surfaced after former deputy minister Tan Kee Kwong wrote an open letter claiming that Felda had lost billions due to government meddling.

Earlier last week, the Umno Kota Raja division protested by burning copies of the publication (left) during the division's annual general meeting.

Felda has also threatened to sue the PKR organ for its report, claiming that it was incorrect and full of "blatant lies".

The article has also landed Suara Keadilan in hot soup with the Home Ministry, which issued a show-cause letter demanding an explanation.
