Deputy Prime Minister Muhyiddin Yassin today lashed out at a small section of the Malays who are bent on questioning government policies, saying such actions could pose a threat to the struggles of Umno and BN.

muhyiddin yassin pc 170310He said that these groups of Malays had been questioning the position of the Malay Rulers, the Malay language as the national language and the efforts to enhance the economic well-being of the Malays.

"The Malays should be united under one umbrella to ensure the agenda to develop them are achieved.

"We will never be able to achieve it if we are disunited," he said when opening the Parit Sulong Umno division meeting in Batu Pahat today.

Muhyiddin said these groups of Malays supported the opposition particularly the DAP.

'They're the racists'

"The DAP labelled me as 'ultra Malay' for fighting for the interest of the Malays when in fact it is (DAP parliamentary leader) Lim Kit Siang who is more racist," he said.

The Umno deputy president said that in this challenging situation, the Malays especially Umno should unite and double their effort not only to strengthen the party but also in implementing the transformation plan so that Umno would continue to be accepted by the people.

He also called for continuous efforts to improve the party, saying the transformation plan to face the coming 13th general election had not been moving as speedy as it should be at the divisional level.

He said party members should carry out the transformation process to make the party relevant to the Malays and the people in general.
