The MCA Youth movement has lodged a police report on the publication of a front-page news by Pertubuhan Perkasa Malaysia (Perkasa) in its official organ Suara Perkasa, calling on the government to detain MCA Youth chief Wee Ka Siong under the Internal Security Act (ISA).

azlanThe police report was lodged by Selangor MCA Youth chief Dr Kow Cheong Wei who was accompanied by about 20 members of the Federal Territory and Selangor MCA Youth at the Dang Wangi district police headquarters, Kuala Lumpur at about 3pm today.

Kow claimed that the contents of the report published by Suara Perkasa on Thursday was extreme.

"We hope the Home Ministry would revoke the Perkasa publication licence," he told reporters at the district police headquarters today.
