About 400 Felda settlers and their second generation throughout Kelantan staged a peaceful demonstration at the Gua Musang Felda Regional Office today, condemning the report by Suara Keadilan recently that Felda had gone bankrupt.

Although the report in the PKR official organ had appeared several days ago, the settlers were still angry to the extent that they urged the Felda management to proceed with the suit against the paper which was alleged to have produced a false report that could tarnish Felda's image internationally.

Felda Chiku Tiga deputy chairman Aziz Abdullah said he was truly disappointed with the Suara Keadilan's allegation which he described as an attempt to jeopardise Felda and said that it was a political game of the opposition.

"Much benefits had been derived from Felda. In fact, it has now progressed and the world has recognised Felda's achievements.

"My income throughout my stay in Felda has been encouraging. If Felda is bankrupt, how can the settlers receive a subsistence allowance of RM1,000 per month," he told reporters here today.
