Selangor Umno Youth today lodged a police report against DAP's publicity chief Tony Pua over the latter's call for bumiputera discounts for high-end property purchase to be abolished.

The report was lodged by Selangor Umno Youth information head Safarizul Mustafa, who was accompanied by about 30 supporters, at the Ampang Jaya police station near here at 11am.

Speaking to reporters afterwards, Safarizul said the call by Pua, who is also Petaling Jaya Utara Member of Parliament, was provocative.

On July 26, Pua had suggested the discount be abolished for commercial and residential properties having a value of over RM500,000.
