PKR de facto leader Anwar Ibrahim said his party is targeting RM4,000 household income within five years of Pakatan Rakyat federal administration.

"The policy proposal will be brought to the Pakatan leadership council for further deliberation," he said, during a press conference at the party headquarters in Petaling Jaya.

He added that while the 8.9 percent growth in the second quarter announced yesterday is commendable, the fact remains that 2.4 million families or 40 percent of families earn less than RM2,300 a month.
