However, it will only take effect if endorsed by the party's central leadership committee set to meet on Sunday.

Those on the suspension list are influential grassroots and division leaders, staunch supporters of former Sabah PKR chairperson Jeffrey Kitingan who had a falling out with the PKR central leadership after a reshuffle saw him removed and vice-president Azmin Ali taking his place.

They were found guilty of breaching party discipline under article 27.7 of its constitution which requires that a member adhere to the constitution, follow party policies and keep safe the good name and reputation of the party.

The twelve named in the statement are, Daniel John Jambun, Awang Ahmad Sah, Moses @ Mozes Michael Iking, Nicholas James Guntobon, Paul Kerangkas, Slyvester @ Balon Mujim, Innocent Makajil, Nasir Samie, Harry Kujukok Manisit, Rubbin bin Guribah, Gosibin Yosundang and Guandee Kohoi
