PKR supreme council member Mohd Rafizi Ramli today announced his candidacy for party Youth chief at the upcoming party elections.

He also unveiled his team, dubbed Generasi Reformasi, at a press conference held in Petaling Jaya this morning.

His running mate for the Youth deputy chief's post is Batu Caves state assemblyperson Amirudin Shari.

Others in Rafizi's team includes Pantai Jerejak state assemblyperson Sim Tze Tzin and Hutan Melintang state assemblyperson S Kesavan, who are vying for the position of vice-youth wing chief.

For the youth wing exco, the team's candidates are Teja assemblyperson Chang Lih Kang, Halimey Abu Bakar, MA Tinagaran and Saifullah Zulkifli.
