The majority of PKR's representatives at both upper and lower houses of Parliament have pledged their support for Azmin Ali to contest for the party deputy presidency at the upcoming party polls.

Azmin, who is Gombak MP, has yet to officially state his intention to contest the post, but is widely speculated to do so soon.

Of PKR's 24 MPs, 18 have pledged support for Azmin while two out of three senators have expressed the same.

At a press conference at the party headquarters today, PKR supreme council member Kamarul Baharin Abas said that with Azmin as the deputy president, it would complement incumbent president Dr Wan Azizah Ismail's leadership.

"Azmin has gone through a rough path since the days of reformasi and he is dedicated to party struggles," said Kamarul, who is also Teluk Kemang MP.

Only a fraction of the entire group were present at the press conference today.

Other MPs present were Zuraida Kamaruddin (Ampang), Johari Abdul (Sungai Petani), S Manikavasagam (Kapar), Loh Gwo Burne (Kelana Jaya) and Amran Abdul Gani (Tanah Merah).
